CHRISTIAN CITIZENSHIP.

The World's W. C. T. U., at its recent meeting in London, established the "Department of Christian Citizenship," with Mrs. Sarah D. La Fetra, of Washington, D. C., as superintendent. She writes: "The aims of this department shall be the promotion of Christian citizenship. A citizenship which shall be one of brains and intellect and unselfish devotion to principle; where the golden rule shall be the basis of action; where loyalty to religion—not formalism, but religion pure and undefiled before God and the Father, a religion of helpfulness and personal consecration shall be the standard. A citizenship whose aims shall be the extermination of every form of vice which debaucheth the citizen or worketh ill to its neighbor. One which stands for the preservation of the Christian Sabbath and all institutions whose purpose is the betterment of humanity, for public and private virtue, for the sanctity of marriage and the protection of the homes of the people. A citizenship which stands uncompromisingly at the ballot box, and elsewhere; and always for the overthrow of every institution, or trade, or business which robs womanhood and childhood of the sacred right to make the very best of life, which is given of God for his glory and for the purest human happiness. The department will co-operate with the oppressed and the downtrodden of every land in securing and enforcing just and righteous laws, and may God grant his blessing evermore upon the work and the workers."—Ex.
